ACS attends the XVI Antilles-Guyana Regional Cooperation Conference

The Secretary General Rodolfo Sabonge was a speaker at the XVI Antilles-Guyana Regional Cooperation Conference. The Secretary praised the French Caribbean's efforts to find solutions to major challenges facing the region, including the rise of Sargassum and other effects of climate change, and reaffirmed the ACS commitment to address the impact of climate change and related negative phenomena, with a view to creating a sustainable Caribbean.