ACS Secretary-General Noemi Espinoza Madrid Will attend the Brazil-Caribbean Summit

Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago – June 6, 2025 — The Association of Caribbean States (ACS) announces that its Secretary-General, H.E. Noemi Espinoza Madrid, will participate in the upcoming Brazil-Caribbean Summit of the Caribbean Development Bank (CDB), scheduled to take place on 13 June 2025 in Brasília, Brazil.

During this mission, Secretary-General Espinoza Madrid will attend the conference "The Present and the Future of Brazil–Caribbean Relations" at the Institute of Applied Economic Research (IPEA) at 2 pm on 12 June 2025 and will participate in the closing ceremony of the CDB Annual Meeting, which will occur within the framework of the summit. On June 13, the Secretary-General will deliver a speech at the Brazil-Caribbean Summit.

This participation signifies the ACS's ongoing commitment to fostering regional cooperation and highlighting the Caribbean's strategic importance on the global stage. The presence of Secretary-General Espinoza Madrid will demonstrate the shared dedication of Caribbean and Latin American nations to advancing regional development and collaboration.

About the Association of Caribbean States (ACS)
The Association of Caribbean States (ACS) is an intergovernmental organization established in 1994 through an international convention, with the aim of promoting consultation, cooperation, and concerted action among the countries of the Greater Caribbean. It currently comprises 25 Member States and 10 Associate Members, and is guided by the principles of multilateralism, respect for sovereignty, and a unity that values the diversity of the Greater Caribbean region.