Empowering Communities and Preserving Cultural Heritage: 36th Meeting of the Special Committee on Sustainable Tourism

The ACS is committed to promoting a sustainable tourism industry within the Greater Caribbean region that facilitates inclusive growth for destinations, offers pathways for host communities to diversify income, and strengthens local identity through the retention and preservation of a destination's culture and heritage.