

Pivotal ACS Workshop Sets Path for 2025-2035 Strategic Vision for the Greater Caribbean

Port of Spain, May 2, 2025 – The Association of Caribbean States (ACS) has successfully concluded a pivotal High-Level Event Strategic & Scenario Planning Workshop, held from April 28th to May 2nd in Port of Spain. This significant gathering marks a critical milestone in the ACS's ongoing efforts to forge a strategic vision poised to address the evolving needs of the Greater Caribbean.

Over the past four days, the workshop has brought together experts, member states, and ACS staff in a collaborative environment designed to define strategic priorities and innovative approaches for the decade ahead. This initiative forms the bedrock for crafting the ACS Strategic Vision for 2025-2035, aimed at positioning the Greater Caribbean as a nexus of peace, sustainable development, and regional collaboration.

As the ACS moves forward, the outcomes of this workshop will inform the construction of a robust Strategic Plan that contributes to strengthening the region's capacity to respond effectively to future challenges and opportunities.
